A BLACK AND WHITE DAY by BENOIT SANON

That day, he did not have time to eat breakfast, because he woke up late and fell asleep. The day before he had a lot of work besides receiving many uncomfortable customers, the company bus arrived later than usual and he arrived very late home. Shael wrapped for him a piece of cheese, a piece of whole bread, and a can of milk. The time was not enough because the work bus was in front of his house honking.

He was nodding off on the bus when suddenly he received a call from Sophy telling him that Betty, their three years old princess they had after 15 years of marriage, had disappeared. He yelled at the driver: ¨leave me here¨, I have to return back home. Because of the pressure, he was under; he didn't have time to tell the driver what happened. In addition to that, in his hurry, he did not realize that his cell phone fell under a seat. His phone was blocked and always silent for not bothering his colleagues.

When He got out of the vehicle, he felt around his pockets to find his cell phone but in vain. ¨What the hell¨! He said. He started running breathlessly in the navy blue darkness until arriving home.

Meanwhile, the woman was super worried about him, because she got tired of calling him to tell him that everything was fine because when he left the house, the girl had woken up and hid in an old abandoned fridge.
